Mailing Update

September 2013 Loaves & Fishes Report

In the August report, we explained that Lighthouse is moving to Pennsylvania and is now operating under Burning Bush Mennonite Church. We were also waiting on a little more money to come in so we could mail Loaves & Fishes 11/03.

The money did come in and everything worked out fine. The mailing left our building on September 11 and the books are arriving at hundreds of jails and prisons across the country. Volunteers from Muddy Pond and Woodbury helped us package and prepare the mailing the week before.

It is wonderful to know that we are finally publishing Loaves & Fishes on a quarterly schedule. We've had this goal for the last few years and have been trying to figure out how to reach it. By making a few changes in the magazine and working together as a team, we've been able to publish three issues this year and hope to mail another one in December.

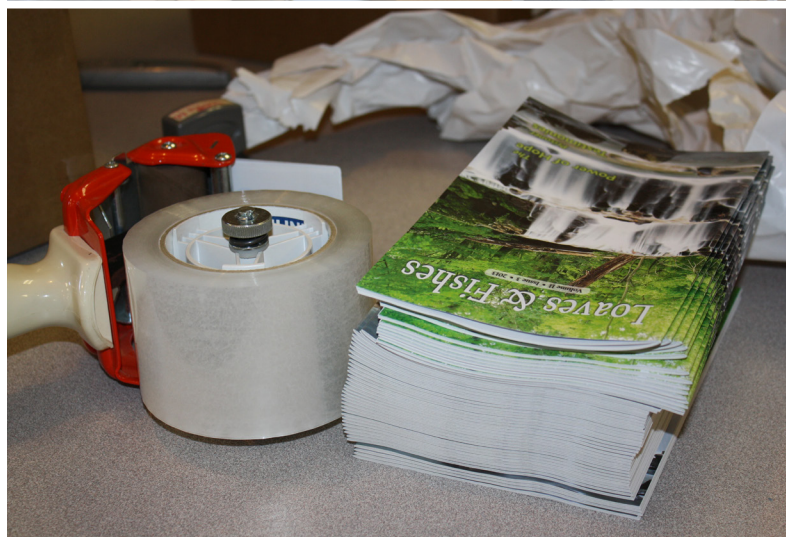

Please pray for inspiration as we compile material for the next issue and for good progress on the editing and design.

Thank you for your prayers and financial support in this exciting project. If you want to help, donations are still accepted at the TN address on the back of this newsletter.

“Our office received a box of your publication today, and we wanted to let you know how we appreciate them. Our detainees really enjoy whatever we can give them to assist them in their spiritual needs.

“It’s always a challenge to find sources we can turn to help us, as we do reply largely on organizations such as yours for donations, and the magazine Loaves and Fishes is a very welcome addition, and will be put to good use.”

“Thanks for the subscription to Loaves and Fishes. It helps a lot in this prison environment. I may be going home in February, so I am requesting an address change to my home address. If there are not enough to be able to send me one please cancel my subscription. I know how important the uplifting messages are to those in prison.”
