

Issue 24 Mailing Update

September 24, 2014 | Loaves & Fishes Report

Free Discipleship Tools for Prisoners

In a recent email newsletter, we announced that we were able to print Loaves & Fishes Issue 24. This is a major milestone, especially since our publishing schedule has been extra slow the last while.

The books arrived at our facility in Bedford, PA last week (September 15). Our printing company does excellent work, and it always feels wonderful to actually page through a new issue after many hours of looking at it on the computer screen.

Issue 24

(updated cover to match the season)

Two days after the books came, volunteers from our church plus Jimmy (who works in the mail room) and his wife came to prepare the mailing. Several people worked on the single subscriptions while the rest packed the box subscriptions. Most of the people were new to the mailing process; but it went smoothly, and we finished it all in one long evening!

The singles and bulk subscriptions are leaving this week. The postage for all the single subscriptions and bulk boxes together was some over $9,500. We were able to pay the postage with a little money left.

We needed 105,000 booklets to fill current subscriptions, so we printed 110,000 copies. (We always print about 5,000 extra for new orders between issues and for back issue inventory.)

Thank you for making Issue 24 possible. I am very excited about this issue reaching thousands of prisoners in many prisons and jails around the country. Pray for these books as they travel to their destinations and as prisoners read them, that the message in them would lead people to God and His word!

For the Kingdom,
Lavern Gingerich
